

1.2.9. percentage of primary education at the right age, by province, language of instruction and gender – 2018, 2019, 2020

The age profile of the children enrolled in primary level education with respect to education at the right age followed the country level trend and had improvements (up to 3%) in schools with English and French language of instruction from 2018 to 2020 but a setback in 2020 observed for those being taught in Vernacular.

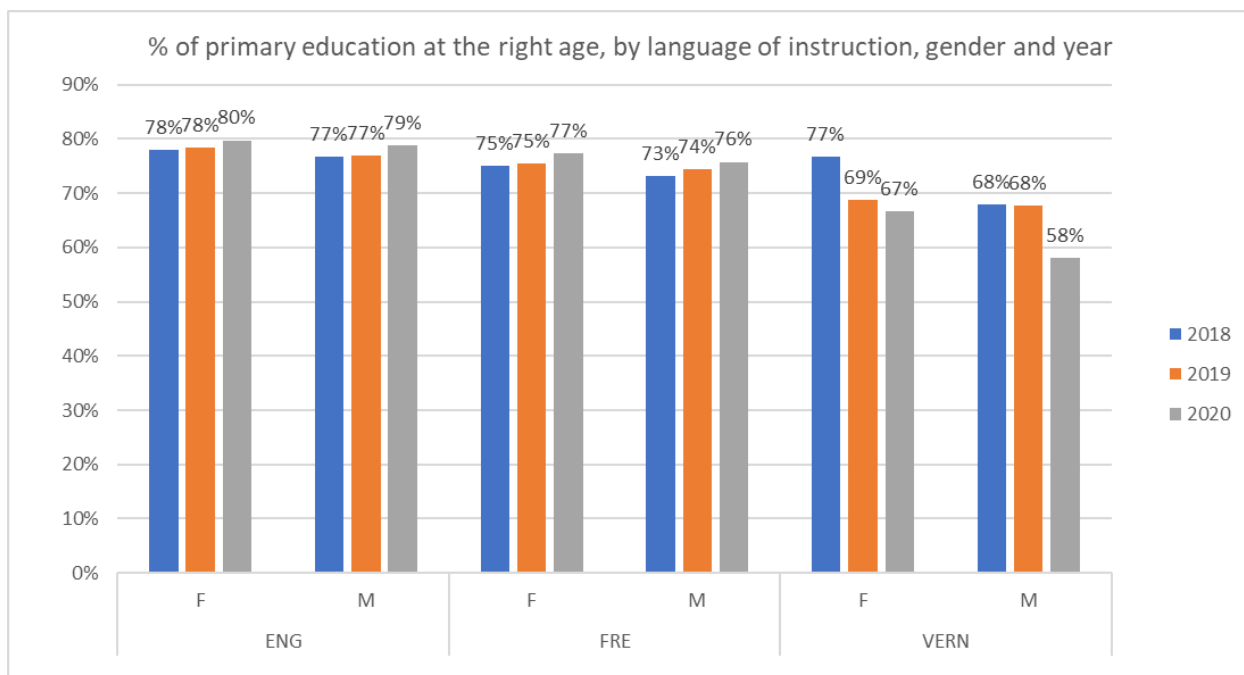

Chart 1.2.9 a

The trends within the rate of education at the right age within schools teaching in English and French languages follows the country level trend for both genders with larger variations in each province. Schools teaching in Vernacular language in Penama province followed the overall trend for females but had a decrease for males in Penama province. In Torba province, Schools started to teach in Vernacular with a low rate of education at the right age.

% of primary education at the right age, by province, language of instruction, gender and year

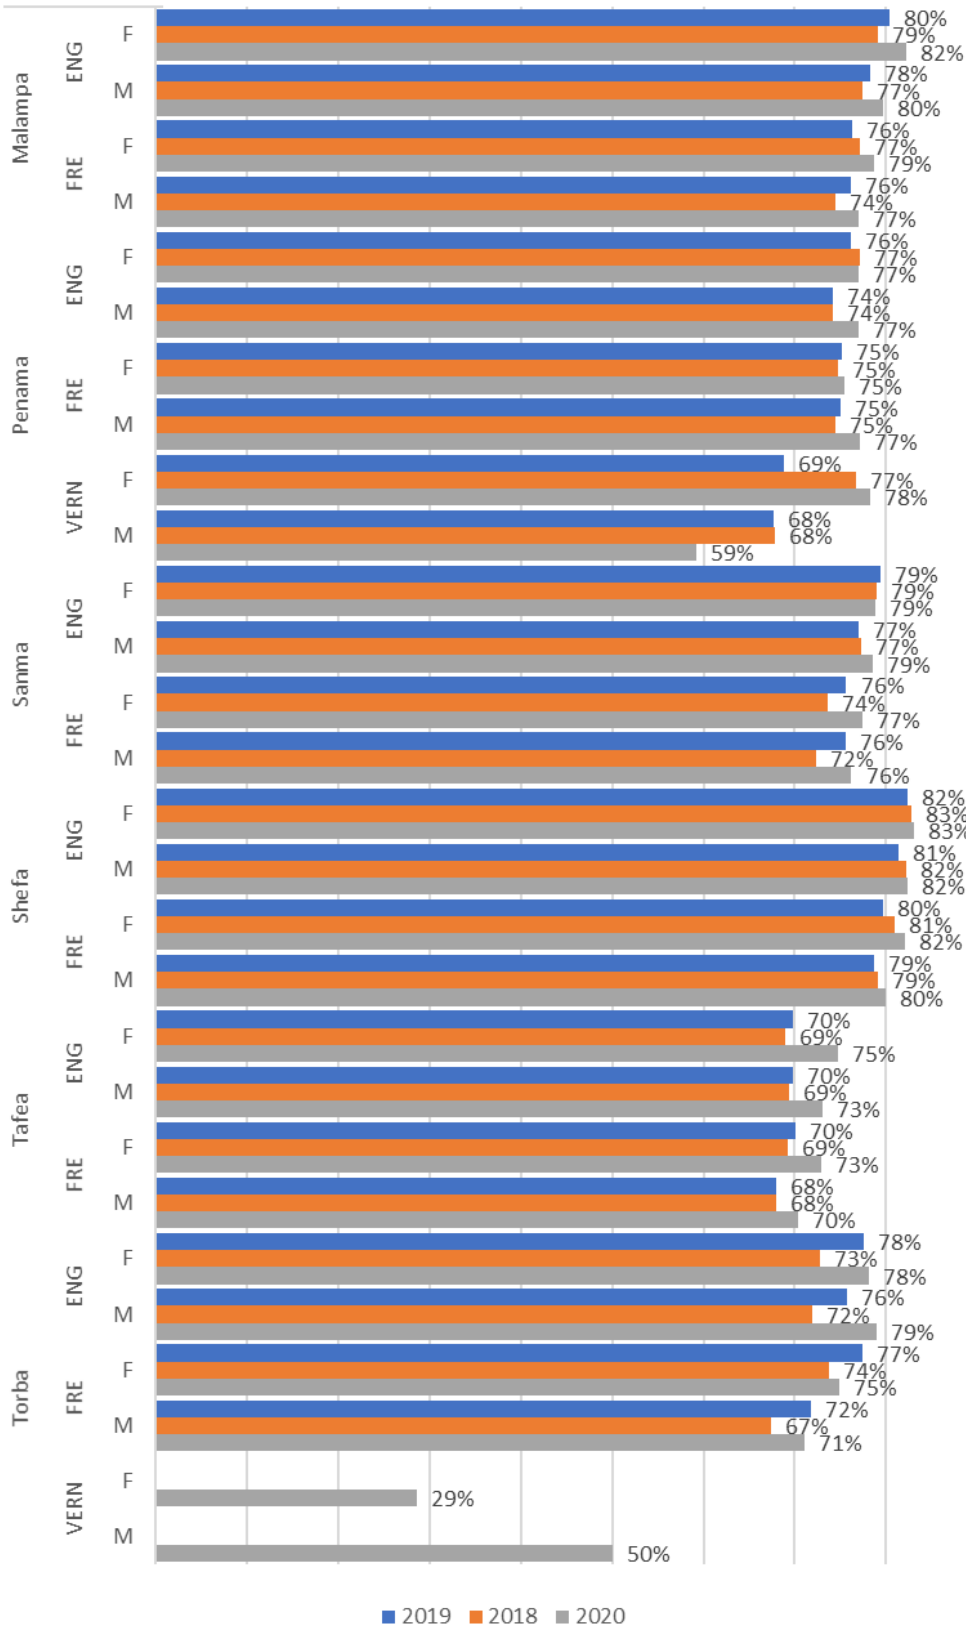

Chart 1.2.9 b