This Handbook is the Second Edition – the First Edition was published in 1989.

The original handbook was edited by Ian Collingwood and Georges Maria, former technical advisers to the Ministry of Education and was largely based on work by Ian Crowther, former Head Teacher of Central Primary School, Port Vila and earlier work by John Weeks, a former technical adviser to the Ministry of Education.

The Second Edition has been compiled by Charley Robert, Senior Education Officer Professional, with assistance from consultants Gerard Colla and Euan Lockie, from the Asian Development Bank Project on Enhancing Frontline Services.

The writers would like to thank the many teachers, Head Teachers, Zone Leaders and Ministry of Education staff who contributed their ideas in discussions on the work of Head Teachers and Zone Leaders (now Zone Curriculum Advisers) and the revision of the Head Teachers' Handbook.

Significant contributions to the Handbook have been made by all Provincial Education Officers and Inspectors, who wrote and revised many sections during special workshops
