It was a fun Saturday morning and Charley and Jovana were excited to go fishing.

After having breakfast, Charley and Jovana prepared their fishing line and started walking through the bush, down to the sea.

The sea was very quiet. The waves slowly splashed, splashed, splashed against the stones.

Charley put the bait onto his fishing hook, then threw it into the sea while Jovana filled the bucket with sea water.

Suddenly, Charley shouted, “Hooray! Hooray!”

“What is it?” asked Jovana.

“I caught a big fish!” Charley replied. He reeled the fish in, getting a close look at it.

Charley removed the fish from the hook, put some new bait on, and threw the hook back into the sea.

A few seconds later, Charley shouted again, "Jovana, I caught one!"

Jovana grinned as she watched him.

As they fished, the sky started to grow dark, and rain began to fall.

“Charley! Charley! Let’s go back home!” shouted Jovana. “The rain is coming!”

Charley quickly reeled up his fishing line, and they climbed the hill to head back home.

When they reached home, their mum was excited to see the two big fish.

She cooked them, and they all had a wonderful meal together as a family.
