"VANUATU AGRICULTURE COLLEGE AND JIANGSU AGRI-ANIMAL HUSBANDRY VOCATIONAL COLLEGE SIGN COOPERATION FRAMEWORK TO ENHANCE AGRICULTURAL EDUCATION AND TRAINING"

Jiangsu Agri-Animal Husbandry Vocational College (JAC) is a leading institution in Jiangsu, China, known for its extensive resources, including a large library and advanced technology parks.

In 1998, after a delegation led by Vanuatu's Prime Minister, Mr. Barak Tame Sope, visited China, an agreement was signed between Vanuatu and China to establish an agriculture college in Vanuatu. The Vanuatu Agriculture College Act was passed in 2006, and the college was officially established.

On August 8, 2024, Vanuatu Agriculture College (VAC) and JAC signed a Cooperation Framework to enhance education and training. The agreement includes online courses, curriculum development, teacher training, academic exchanges, and joint scientific research in various agricultural fields.

The signing ceremony took place at the Vanuatu Ministry of Education and Training and was attended by DG Mr. Bergmans Iati, Ag. Director Tertiary Jerrol Arnhambat who oversight PSET sector in Vanuatu and other senior officials, marking a significant milestone for VAC and JAC in the Post School Education and Training sector of Vanuatu.
